

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper

Responsive Reading - Hymnal 773
From I Corinthians 11: NKJV

I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you:

That the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread: and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; Do this in remembrance of Me."

In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.

For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, You proclaim the Lord's death till He comes. Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

But let man examine himself, And so let him eat of the bread And drink of that cup.

My Song Is Love Unknown

Scripture Allusion John 1:14
Samuel Crossman (1624-1683) John Ireland (1879-1962)
Seventh-day Adventist Hymnal 188

My song is love unknown, my Savior's love to me,
Love to the loveless shown, That they might lovely be.
O who am I that for my sake
My Lord should take frail flesh and die?

He came from His blest throne, Salvation to bestow,
But men made strange, and none The longed-for Christ would know. But O my Friend, my Friend indeed
Who at my need His life did spend.

Sometimes they strew His way, and His sweet praises sing, Resounding all the day,
Hosannas to their King. Then "crucify" is all their breath,
And for His death they thirst and cry.

Why, what hath my Lord don't? What makes this rage and spite? He made the lame to run, He gave the blind their sight. Sweet injuries! Yet they at these Themselves displease, and 'gainst Him rise.

They rise, and needs will have My dear Lord made a way;
A murderer they save, The Prince of live they slay.
Yet cheerful He to suffering goes,
That He His foes from thence might free.

Here might I stand and sing, No story so divine:
Never was love, dear King, Never was grief like Thine!
This is my friend, in whose sweet praise
I all my days could gladly spend.
