

HISTORY Of Prayer Where is its place today?

This week we continue to look at prayer with our emphasis on the benefits of praying together.

Questions that we will be examining out of texts such as Acts 1 & 2 are:

- > I already pray, so why pray as a group?
- > With life being so busy, how much time should be dedicated to corporate prayer?

This is the third part of our series, entitled, "HISTORY of Prayer – Where Is It's Place Today?", where we are looking at:

- * How to recognize our need of prayer?
- * How to get more out of prayer?
- * The role of prayer in the history of the church
- * Personal vs. corporate prayer
- * Jesus's great dependence and experienced benefits of prayer

I want to invite you next Sabbath to the last sermon of this series where a large portion of the sermon will be dedicated to applying what we've been studying.

Blessings as we all continue to make prayer a greater focus in our church family!

Pastor Ray

Spanish Worship Schedule

The Spanish Worship service time has been revised to allow time for Pastor Ray to speak for both services.

Spanish Church will be at 9:30 am followed by Sabbath School at 11 am.

There is also a NEW Children's Sabbath School for Spanish speaking children and those kiddos who wish to learn Spanish. They will meet in Classroom 14, at 11:00am. This will provide coverage for children when the regular adult Spanish Sabbath School meets. Georgina Pidoux and Victorina Prieto will teach the Children's Spanish Class
