

FOR YOUR FAMILY'S SAKE
Watch the Time!

Visitors & Friends,

Just this week the Barna Group released an article where the following conclusion was made about today's family:

“Generally active households are spiritually active households...”

Elaborating further, the article explains:

“... practicing Christians who intentionally cultivate a spiritual environment in their household are simply intentional to begin with. Good fun, good work and good faith seem to go hand in hand, indicating spiritual growth is yet another way of being present, interested and engaged in the lives of those around you, or vice versa.”

(The Link Between Fun & Faith in Our Homes, April 2, 2019)

Your thoughts?

Could it be true that the more intentional a family is about doing all kinds of “stuff” together, that the healthier they are spiritually?

Today we are beginning a new 3-part series called, “For Your Family's Sake...” where we will look to hear how from God's Word we can maximize this wonderful thing called... family!

Blessings!

Pastor Ray

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Remembering
Walter Foust

Walter faithfully served our church in many ways and held a special place in each heart. Many of you are still asking his “Favorite Charity”.

Walter had a passion to share the Three-Angels Message.

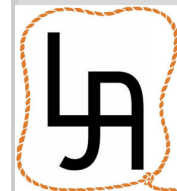

Walter faithfully responded to each request for Bible Lessons. He was knowledgeable of all the Bible lessons available for all ages, and made sure each interest was supplied with the appropriate lesson.

We don't have enough space to list all the numerous ways Walter served our Church Congregation.

We do know that Walter's Favorite Charity/Ministry was LUBBOCK JUNIOR ACADEMY

He believed the message should be implanted in our youth and he actively recruited students for LJA. For those of you who have asked, and want to give something in remembrance of Walter and his ministry. You can mark your offering envelope “Walter”

the proceeds go to his favorite charity,
