

Church Family & Friends,

Welcome to church today!

A couple of questions to ponder on...

Why is it that some the best movies out there are about soldiers, athletes, missionaries, social reformers and martyrs?

Isn't it because we all like to see heroes at work, especially under difficult circumstances?

Hebrews 11 brings us face-to-face with some stories that are quite unusual, to say the least.

And in this series, Heroic Faith, we're going to study some of these narratives from the Old Testament – looking to find faith in action.

May their faith strengthen ours!

Pastor Ray

David said to Saul,
"Let no one lose heart on account of this Philistine;
your servant will go
and fight him."

Dear Church family,
A huge thank you and appreciation to Michele and the ladies who put together, at the last minute, a very well organized luncheon for the Alton Muse family. It was perfect!! You all went above & beyond when you were already committed! We thank you from the bottom of our hearts!! Also, thank you for all the visits and all the prayers on behalf of Alton.

Sincerely,
The Muse Family
