SONG OF PRAISE: Be Thou My Vision

"Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things. Enter the joy of your Lord."

Matthew 25:21,23 / Luke 19:17,19

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

One of God's Little Towns

Located between Judah's two important cities of Jerusalem and Hebron, Bethlehem will be honored to be the birthplace of the future Son of David ... the new ruler will be strong because his strength will come from the Lord. His reign will not be in his own power or might, and will extend to the ends of the earth.

Thus a new ruler arises from an unlikely place. The Bible never lists Bethlehem among fortified cities. In many ways it is considered as insignificant. But later it became special because it was the home of King David, the ruler who united Israel and led it to its golden age. People expect great personalities from great places, but it is not so with God. The Messiah's birth will seem as unexpected as was the choice of David to be king. A seemingly insignificant place will be the home of the most exalted person.

(Zdravko Stefanovic,
Thus Says the Lord: Messages From the Minor Prophets, 84).
