

Perspective

Robert Plant, II, Head Elder

Q: How many Adventists does it take to change a light bulb?
A: That depends on where the bulb is. If it's at home, it should take one; however, some of the bulbs in the Worship Center (Sanctuary) and the Parking Lot may best be changed with at least two...

Q: How many Adventists does it take to turn on a light switch?
A: One, if the switch is working. All of our light switches are, to my knowledge...

Q: How many Adventists does it take to be a Light?
A: That depends on who is willing. YAH (God) wants each of us to be a Light in our homes, in our workplaces, in our communities, and around the world. In the Gospel account of John, the Tenth Chapter and Twenty-fifth Verse, the Anointed Savior (Jesus Christ) told the Jews that "the works that I do in My Father's Name, they bear witness of Me." The Greek word for "bear witness" could also be translated as "bear (historic) record" or "testify". Throughout his Earthly Sojourn, Christ gave testimony of the Heavenly Father - not by words, nor by deeds, but by His CHARACTER. He was always selfless in focus, selfless in service, and selfless in love with all that He said and did, showing the world what it means to be a Living Sanctuary for God.

It's as though His Life was like a "See 'n Say" whose centerpiece always pointed one direction: towards Heaven.

Brothers and Sisters of the Way, we are each called to be "the Light of the World" (Matthew 5:14-15). Each of us can Be the Image of God, publicly and privately, if we CHOOSE to "plug into the Source". It is only through continual prayer, study, and living a devoted life of Selfless Love (Agape) that we will be the Light of the World: a "See 'n Say" that always points toward Heaven...

Let's go BIG and go Home!
