

Pastor's Page

Pastor Phil Robertson, Interim Pastor

Greetings dear friends and welcome to our worship experience today. It is always a blessing to come into the House of the Lord, and even more so as we gather in His Name and with His people to experience the blessing of fellowship and community.

I want to give you yet another update on the recovery process that my family is experiencing from the challenges brought on by the Corona-virus. I believe that I am progressing well toward full recovery and I am grateful for God's protection and provision for healing. My wife, Kathie, has been hit much harder with the challenges of this virus. Last Sabbath I shared a brief message indicating that she was home from the hospital and that I was grateful to be seeing evidence of her returning strength from day to day.

However, last Saturday night she began to run a fever with chills which actually led us back to the emergency room last Sunday for much of the day. We are grateful that the diagnosis did not appear to be related to her recent hospitalization and with some IV antibiotics and a cycle of antibiotics to take at home we were released. So for the next two days we experienced the roller coaster of her fever levels going up and down.

Wednesday and Thursday presented us with a sense that perhaps we are finally on a trajectory toward recovery once again. Even though some days have been very difficult, it has been a wonderful blessing to see evidences of God's faithfulness, care and healing. The words of the song, What a Friend we have in Jesus, are an amazing reminder that He is not only able to take the burdens that we share with Him, He is also faithfully providing for our needs. We continue to pray for Kathie's full recovery and we choose to hold tightly to His hand each day.

I am saddened that today and next Sabbath bring challenges that prevent us from being with you in Lubbock. Now, it seems safe to say that February 26 will be the next Sabbath we will be with you. I plan to begin a new sermon series that I pray will be a blessing to each of us.

I am grateful that Robert Plant will share a sermon message this Sabbath, February 12 and Abel Rios will speak on Sabbath, February 19. I am confident that God's Spirit will prompt their hearts with just the words that we need to hear. We love you and pray for God's blessings to each of you.

Warmly,
Pastor Phil
