Pastor Phil Robertson, Interim Pastor

Greetings Church Family,

We are pleased to welcome Pastor Joshua Ramirez and his wife Kate, who are worshipping with us today and Pastor Josh will share a sermon message.

Pastor Josh, as he is known, graduated in 2019 from Southwestern Adventist University with a degree in Theology.

During his university years Pastor Josh was involved in various ministry experiences that includes a year as a student missionary teacher at Palau Mission Academy in the Micronesian Islands. He also has served a couple of summers as a Bible Worker and a leader with the Wildfire Youth Evangelism team, sponsored by Campion Academy in Colorado, as well as serving as the Student Chaplain of Southwestern Adventist University.

Pastor Josh came to Texico in May, 2019, to pastor the Clovis & Portales churches in New Mexico and also the Hereford and Plainview churches in Texas. When he came, he was single, but now, through the miracle of shared memories and the blessings of God, Pastor Josh and Kate were married in late November of 2020. Actually, they were both student missionaries at Palau the same school year, and now, after several years have passed, love was kindled and the rest is history.

We are grateful for Pastor Josh's ministry to Lubbock Junior Academy this past week as he spoke to our students for their Spring Week-of-Prayer.

He shared messages on the theme of "The Great Rescue" as he taught about the Plan of Salvation.

Thank you Pastor Josh for coming over each day and speaking to, praying with, and even enjoying recess playing together.

Welcome to the Lubbock Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Warmly,

Pastor Phil
